

Damian MARRON

Profile

Damian Marron is an experienced life sciences executive with a successful track record of value creation in public and private biotechnology companies through public, VC and non-dilutive financing (including IPO), sale to large cap pharma, biotech M&A and corporate turnaround.

He's a highly accomplished leader focused on strategic and portfolio planning, company development and deal making.

He has achieved deals with top ten pharma through to biotechs including M&A, license agreements, research collaborations and marketing agreements.

Damian Marron has a broad background in the pharmaceutical industry from basic research and clinical development through to sales and strategic marketing allied to scientific training giving the breadth of view required to operate successfully at the highest level in and around the biotechnology and life sciences arena. He possesses an extensive network of contacts globally from big pharma through to biotech companies and with investors, banks and analysts.

Experience

2015 - 2017 CEO and Director Agalimmune Ltd and EIR Animatrix Capital

2013 - 2015 CEO and Director, TxCell SA, France

2012 - 2013 CEO and Director, Cytheris SA, France

2008 - 2012 CEO and Director, Trophos SA, France

2002 - 2008 Executive VP Corporate Development, NicOx SA, France

Previously (1986-2002) senior and operational roles at 3M Health Care, Orphan Europe, Chügai-Rhône Poulenc JV, Rhône Poulenc-Rorer SA, Glaxo, Coralab and the University of Liverpool.